

GENTRY

DESTINATIONS

RESORTS | HOMES | TRAVEL | ADVENTURE

165

MONA LISA

APRIL - MAY 2017

Separate spa areas surround the indoor relaxation pool for men and women, alongside an exercise room, a steam room, a sauna, showers and dressing rooms.

COSMOPOLITAN CHIC

BASKING IN A WEEKEND ESCAPE AT THE ST. REGIS MEXICO CITY.

Built on top of lake Texcoco and the famed Aztec capital of Tenochtitlán, Mexico City is one of the most vibrant modern cities in the world, a melting pot of history and culture. Today's Mexico City specializes in everything from high fashion to high cuisine and at the city's glamorous epicenter is the ST. REGIS. The five-star property is the perfect base for exploring the exciting city and the perfect spot for getting away from it all. The Remède Spa & Fitness Center, exclusive to St. Regis brands around the world, offers an array of soothing and energizing treatments.

For guests who want to indulge in a culinary adventure, the St. Regis offers a VIP tour of the San Juan market showcasing a variety of fresh, seasonal, and exotic ingredients that make Mexican cuisine unique. On the market tour, guests will learn about produce, edible flowers, herbs, seasonings, and sauces, along with edible insects, one of Mexico's ancient culinary traditions.

This month, the St. Regis Mexico City's Easter Package includes Sunday brunch at Diana Restaurant with champagne or a three-course dinner at J&G Grill for two, plus complimentary use of the hotel's bicycles or electric bikes, and more.

For more information and to secure The St. Regis Mexico City's Easter Package, visit www.stregis.com/mexicocity. Select spaces are available for April 13 - 18, 2017. Pricing begins at $319 per night. —CORRINE E. COOK

The St. Regis Mexico City, an imposing downtown presence, is beautifully located in the elegant 31-story Liberty Tower. It overlooks Paseo de la Reforma in the heart of one of the most exciting areas of the city.